HOW THE WEST WAS LOST

ECONOFICTION CAPITAL, EQUILIBRIUM, FINANCE, MARXISM, NEOCLASSICS

This is my acceptance speech, given to the World Association for Political Economy (WAPE) in response to its Marxian Economics Award, July 2018. It deals with the relation required between Chinese and Western Marxist economists, in the light of China's economic success, the prolonged stagnation of the industrialised economies, and the persistence of a high level of inequality between nations.
